On Tuesday, Horizons Art Gallery hosted the opening of an exhibition featuring the works of an all-woman cast of painters which includes Shannon Hutchinson, Hilma Smith-Barnes and Robyn Knaggs.

Hutchinson is a returning artist who received her Bachelor of Fine Art from the Ontario College of Art and Design after completing her thesis year in Florence, Italy, in 2006. She makes her own paint with raw pigments, and explores the mixing and layering of colours and media onto a variety of surfaces.

Knaggs said her paintings reflect a long-standing interest in local nature and influence of light and atmospheric effects upon them.

Hilma Smith-Barnes was born in Kingston, Jamaica and is a graduate of the Jamaica School of Arts (now known as the Edna Manley School of Visual Arts). She finds her inspiration in the human.

The exhibition runs until July 7.
